Dear friends,

I am sending you the information about the competitions

„OPEN EUROPEAN MUAYTHAI CLUBS CUP 2014” in Daugavpils, Latvia. May 30, May 31 and June 1. In memory of Dmitry Vorobyov.

Competitions are held on the rules of Muay Thai IFMA.

Carrying out regular International competitions in Latvia corresponds for many positive moments:

- Latvia's convenient territorial arrangement helps to save considerable money for journey to a place of competitions for many countries, which will take part in the competitions. Latvia borders with Russian Federation and with Belorussia (which are World's leaders of Muaythai and is a member of the European Union);
- Organizers positive experience in carrying out the International competitions;
- Intermediate competitions quantity's development for sportsmen's skill increasing;
- European Federation of Muaythai coordination work's improvement with national teams and with European Federation of Muaythai members;
- Strengthening and development of basic principles of the Olympic movement.

In 2009, in the city of Liepaja (Latvia) was held at the European Championship of Amateur Muaythai rules IFMA. Latvian Federation of Muaythai was the organizer of the European Championship. European Championship in Liepaja many participants remembered how well organized sporting event. Many of you have talked about holding regular tournament in Latvia.

Visa: Latvia is a member of the European Union, so it is included into the Schengen visa zone.

Venue: The Championship will take place in the Daugavpils Olympic Center. The information about the ice Palace, you can find in the internet: <http://www.daugavpilsoc.lv/?lang=en>

Arrival: It is more convenient to choose the following route: firstly come to Riga, and then come to Daugavpils by bus. (Information here - <http://www.daugavpils.lv/en>). Delegations can arrive to Riga by plane, by bus or by train. The Riga Airport is about fifteen-minute drive from the city centre. The bus terminal and railway station are in the city centre. We can consult you and whenever possible we will support you. There is a regular coach from the Riga Bus terminal to Liepaja; the ticket costs about 10 euro. The distance between Riga and Daugavpils is 220 km. It takes about 3 hours to come from Riga to Daugavpils.
